

The New Kinokuniya Bookstore
In Conjunction with Stone Bridge Press

Present:

Lost Classics of Anime: (Ones You Probably Haven't Seen)

And Probably Won't See Unless you come to this event!

Brian Camp is the co-author, with Julie Davis, of the newly published "Anime Classics Zetta! 100 Must-See Japanese Animation Masterpieces," from Stone Bridge Press. A graduate in Cinema Studies from both Hunter College and New York University, he has been writing and lecturing about anime regularly since 1994 and has given talks on the subject to youth groups, students and teachers. He contributed reviews and articles to Animerica Anime & Manga Monthly for several years and has taught a course on "Anime: History and Style" at the School of Visual Arts in New York.

He'll show clips from pieces that haven't been released here or have been rarely seen, including two of the very first Japanese animated color features

anime classics and popular titles from Japan virtually unknown here in the U.S!

November 3rd, 2007

Saturday 5:00 PM

During Kinokuniya's costume day!

Come in costume and receive a VIZ MEDIA gift bag (limited stock)
or a 10% discount
of any comic Or anime product

BOOKS Kinokuniya

1073 Avenue of the Americas

Across from Bryant Park between 40th & 41st Streets

New York, NY 10018

(212) 869-1700

WWW.KINOKUNIYA.COM

